CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by PETER TIMOTHY, Printer to the Honourable the COMMONS HOUSE of ASSEMBLY, at his Office on the BAY, near the Exchange.

LONDON, JANUARY 16.

Humble ADDRESS of the Right Honourable the LORDS Spiritual and TEMPORAL, in Parliament assembled; to His MAJESTY, on Friday, January 14th,

GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, return your Majesty our humble thanks for your gracious Speech from the Throne.

We are truly sensible of your Majesty's goodness, in having given us so long a recess from business as the public service would admit.

We cannot but express our concern, that the peace so long expected and so desirable, is not yet concluded between Russia and the Porte. It gives us, however, great satisfaction to hear from the continuance of the pacific dispositions of other foreign powers; and we humbly beg leave to return your Majesty our thanks for your Majesty's most gracious declaration, that no endeavours shall be wanting on your part, consistent with the honour of your Crown, and the interests of your people, for the establishment and subsequent preservation of the public tranquillity.

We doubt not your Majesty may be assured, That we entertain the justest sense of your Majesty's paternal care, in recommending to your Parliament to make use of this season of tranquillity for improving the Commerce and Revenue of the Kingdom, and in particular to us particularly the necessity and great National Advantage of putting the Gold Coin on such a footing, as may effectually remove the present grievance, and secure the Credit and Commerce of the Kingdom from being again exposed to the like danger: The wisdom and goodness of your Majesty, in this great occasion, appear in so conspicuous a light as cannot fail to fill our minds with the deepest gratitude, and raise in us the strongest desire of employing our utmost efforts for such salutary purposes.

We are fully impressed with every sentiment of duty to your Majesty, and the warmest zeal for the public welfare, we will take under our most serious consideration, the important objects to which your Majesty has been pleased to call our attention.

His MAJESTY's most gracious ANSWER.

MY LORDS,

I thank you for this loyal Address. Nothing can give me greater satisfaction than these assurances of your duty and affection.

You may always depend upon my hearty concurrence in every measure that contributes to the improvement of commerce, and the true interest and prosperity of my people.

The humble ADDRESS of the HOUSE of COMMONS to the KING; Presented to his MAJESTY on Saturday, January 15th, 1774.

Most gracious Sovereign,

We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of Great-Britain, in Parliament assembled, return your Majesty our most humble thanks, for your Majesty's most gracious Speech from the Throne.

Permit us, Sir, to assure your Majesty, that we sincerely rejoice that the peace so long expected, and so much desired, is not yet effected, between Russia and the Porte; but, at the same time, we beg leave to express the satisfaction we feel, in learning that other Foreign Powers continue still to have the same pacific dispositions with your Majesty: We acknowledge, with the utmost gratitude, the assurance which your Majesty has been pleased to repeat to us, that you have no other wish than to see the general tranquillity restored and preserved, consistently with the honour of your Crown, and the interests of your People; and we consider this gracious declaration of your Majesty, a paternal care for the welfare of your subjects, and of your generous concern for the happiness of mankind.

We are truly sensible that it is our duty, as it shall be our care, to employ the leisure which the state of foreign affairs allows us, in attending to our internal and domestic situation; And we cannot but acknowledge your Majesty's great wisdom, in recommending and pointing out to our serious consideration the state of the Gold Coin of this Kingdom, as well on account of its very extensive importance, as of the peculiar advantages which the present time affords, for conducting and executing with success any measure touching this great National Object: We saw, with the deepest concern, the difficulties and distress in which the nation was on the point of being involved, by the very alarming degree of diminution which this Coin had actually suffered, before the evil was checked by the regulations made in the last session of Parliament; and we beg leave to assure your Majesty, that, impressed with a just sense of our duty to our country and our fellow subjects, we will exert our best endeavours to accomplish the great work of putting the Gold Coin upon such a footing, as may not only completely remove the present grievance, but, as far as the nature of the case will admit, render the Credit and Commerce of the Kingdom secure from being again exposed to the like danger.

Your faithful Commons will, with the utmost chearfulness, grant to your Majesty such Supplies as shall be found necessary for the present situation of affairs: And your Majesty may be assured, that animated by your recommendation, and excited by your example, we will apply ourselves with the utmost zeal and diligence to promote the welfare of our country; and that we will not fail to direct our attention to such parts of the public service as appear to us most important; having a perfect confidence that, whatever measures we may propose, that will serve either to secure or advance the happiness and prosperity of your people, will always meet with your Majesty's gracious approbation and concurrence.

His MAJESTY's most gracious ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

I thank you for this very loyal and dutiful Address. I see with the highest satisfaction the continuance of your affection to me, and of your zeal for the public service: you may be assured, that it is the invariable object and the constant care of my life, to promote the happiness, and to deserve the confidence, of my people.

CHARLES-TOWN, MARCH 21.

HIS Excellency Patrick Tonyn, Esq; the new Governor of East-Florida, who came out from England in the Ship Britannia, Capt. Samuel Ball, jun. was landed at St. Auguſtine the 18 Inſtant, off which Bar Cape Ball lay 16 Days before he could get all His Excellency's Baggage and Servants aſhore.—On the 16th of February, in Lat. 30, Long. 63, Capt. Ball met with the Brigantine Ann, of and for Okeracock in North-Carolina, from St. Kitts, William Morris, Maſter, bearing away for the Iſland ſhe came from, having loſt her Main-maſt, and one Man overboard, being in great Want of Water and Proviſions, and the People very ſickly: Capt. Ball ſupplied them with Water, Beef, &c.

Tueſday laſt the Swallow Packet-Boat, commanded by Capt. William Copeland, ſailed with a Mail for Great-Britain; and on Thurſday next another Mail will be made up at the General Poſt-Office, to go by the La Deſpencer, Capt. William Talbot.

The ſame Day died, John Cattell, Eſq; (Son of William) of St. Andrew's Pariſh.

We are juſt now informed, that the Antient Britons did not overlook the Anniverſary of their tutelary Saint—for that the ST. DAVID'S CLUB met, and had a very elegant Entertainment, at Mr. William Edwards's Tavern on the Bay, when they choſe Col. PROBART HOWARTH, to preſide over them for the enſuing Year, and Mr. Joſhua Lockwood, for their Secretary.

At the Adjournment of the GENERAL MEETING at Liberty Tree on the 9th Inſtant, to Mr. PIKE's Aſſembly-Room, on Wedneſday laſt the 16th Inſtant, when and where as great and reſpectable a Body of the Inhabitants were aſſembled, as have yet appeared upon any public Occaſion:

The Hon. GEORGE-GABRIEL POWELL being once more placed in the Chair,

The following RESOLVES were ſeverally agreed to, viz.

I. That NO TEAS (except ſuch as, having been ordered before the 3d of December laſt, ſhall arrive here on or before the 16th of April next) ſhall be imported, landed, bought or ſold, until the Act of the 7th of GEO. III. Chap. 46, commonly called the American Revenue or Tea-Act, be totally and clearly repealed.

II. That the Eaſt-India Company's TEA now lying in a Cellar under the Exchange, ſhall not be SOLD in this Province, or removed from the Place where it now lies, unleſs to be put on Ship-board in order to be carried off the Province, while ſubject to the preſent Duty: And that this Body will, by every Means in their Power, prevent ſuch Sale or Removal.

III. If any Perſon ſhall IMPORT, BUY or SELL any TEA, contrary to the firſt above-mentioned Reſolution, that we will have no Dealings with ſuch Perſon, nor with any that ſhall refuſe to ſign the Agreement to be drawn up, in Conſequence of theſe Reſolutions by a Committee to be named for that Purpoſe.

A Committee of FIVE very reſpectable Gentlemen, was then named, for the Purpoſe aforeſaid.

It was then Reſolved, That the Committee nominated on the 20th of January laſt, be a ſtanding GENERAL COMMITTEE, to concert and purſue ſuch Meaſures, as ſhall be moſt likely to promote a due Obſervance of, and give due Effect to, the foregoing Reſolutions: That any FIFTEEN of them aſſembled together (as on their firſt Nomination) may proceed on Buſineſs: That they muſt keep their Number always complete: And, that they do call the Inhabitants again together, whenever, and in ſuch Manner as they ſhall think proper.

After which the General Meeting was adjourned to whatever Day the ſaid Committee ſhould thereafter call it on.

Laſt Thurſday being the Anniverſary of the Tutelar Saint of Ireland, the Sons of ST. PATRICK, celebrated the ſame, with great Joy and Feſtivity, at different Houſes in this Town, as did many other Gentlemen who joined them.

Friday laſt being the ANNIVERSARY of the REPEAL of the American STAMP-ACT (an impolitic LAW, which threw all the Britiſh Colonies into Convulſions, and greatly weakened the cordial Confidence and Affection which had before conſtantly ſubſiſted between the Coloniſts and their Brethren in Great-Britain, and might have continued to this Hour, but for the continual Jealouſies and Diſtruſt which were thereby originally excited—and a REPEAL, that in a great Meaſure reſtored that Confidence and Affection, which is abſolutely and eſſentially neceſſary for the Well-being of the whole Empire, but has been again impaired by the DECLARATORY ACT, and the REVENUE ACT of the 7th of His preſent Majeſty's Reign)—the ſame was celebrated here, in a Manner that muſt convince every unprejudiced Man (every one who is not a wilful Incendiary) that there are not on Earth more loyal Subjects, or a People more deſirous, or better diſpoſed, to live upon good Terms with the Mother Country, or that would more zealouſly ſupport the juſt Claims and Expectations of Government, provided it would treat us, as the Engliſh Conſtitution gives a Right to expect, and not as Aliens, or illegitimate. Beſides what has been uſual on Public Rejoicing-Days; upon the preſent Occaſion, the Charles-Town Regiment of Foot-Militia, commanded by Col. Charles Pinckney, was drawn up in Old-Church-Street, and marched to the new Parade without the Gate, where it was reviewed, appeared to much greater Advantage than on the old Place, and behaved remarkably well. The late-formed LIGHT INFANTRY Company (of only One Year's ſtanding) commanded by Macartan Campbell, Eſq; in their Uniform, were likewiſe under Arms, and made a very handſome Appearance; they looked like what it is hoped they will [illegible] drawn up at Granville's Baſtion, and as it march'd along the Bay, was politely ſaluted by Capt. Arthar, of the Ship St. Helena, with a Diſcharge of Cannon. Upon the Parade, they were reviewed by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, and went thro' every Part of the Military Exerciſe and Firings, and ſome new Manœuvres, with ſo much Regularity and Dexterity, that his Honour was pleaſed to pay a particular Compliment of Approbation and Thanks to both Officers and Men; in ſhort, the Attention of all the Beholders of this Review, who were very numerous, and expreſſed the utmoſt Pleaſure at the rapid Progreſs by which this Company had diſtinguiſhed itſelf, was drawn particularly to this new Corps: The Review over, the whole Light Infantry Company repaired to Mrs. Swallow's Tavern, where an elegant Entertainment had been provided by the Officers, which was honoured with the Preſence of the Lieutenant-Governor, many of the Members of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly, all the Officers of the Regiment of Militia, many civil Officers, ſeveral of the Clergy, and a great Number of other Gentlemen. After Dinner, many loyal and conſtitutional Toaſts were drank; the King, the Queen and Royal Family, the Governor and Province, reſpectively, ſucceeded by a Diſcharge of Cannon from Capt. Arthar's Ship. In the Evening, they went in a Body to the Theatre, where the Comedy of the RECRUITING OFFICER, with the ORACLE, were preſented by particular Deſire of the Officers: After the Play, they returned to Mrs. Swallow's, to Supper, where they ſpent the Night in a Manner ſuitable to the Day, in loyal and harmonious Joy.

By Capt. Saltus from Bermuda, we learn, that about the 7th of laſt Month put in there, a Brigantine called the David Denan, Alexander Donaldſon, Maſter, from Inverneſs, bound for New-York, with upwards of 200 Paſſengers on board; which ſailed from Inverneſs the 7th of September laſt, but meeting with bad Weather put in and lay a Month at one of the Orkney Iſles; after they had been ſome Time ſailed from thence, the Crew and Paſſengers became ſo ſickly, as to render it difficult to navigate the Veſſel; in this Condition, they bore away for Bermuda, after 30 Deaths on board; and had they not been relieved by three different Veſſels met with, they muſt have periſhed. She was to proceed for New-York the 22d Inſt.

The Aſſembly of New-York have liberally voted the Sum of 5000l. (20,000l. this Currency) to His Excellency Gov. Tryon, to compenſate in ſome Meaſure for the Loſs he ſuſtained in the late Fire at Fort George.

By a Royal Edict dated at Copenhagen the 26th of September laſt, the Duties upon Importation of Salt Beef, Fiſh, Pork, Peaſe, Lime, &c. &c. from North-America to St. Croix, are reduced from 25 to 5 per Cent.

Smart Shocks of an Earthquake were felt in different Parts of the Colony of Virginia, from the 20th to the 22d ult. but without doing more Damage than terrifying the People.

The New-York Tea-Ship Nancy, Captain Lockyer, after beating ſome Time on that Coaſt, was obliged to bear away for the Weſt-Indies, and is ſaid to have put into Antigua.

The Inhabitants of Canada, it is ſaid, have petitioned for the Eſtabliſhment of a Legiſlature.—The Inhabitants of Eaſt-Florida, it is ſaid, will do ſo too, ſoon.

The Schooner Liberty, Samuel Robinſon, Maſter, which ſailed from this Port the 19th of December laſt, for Boſton, was loſt on the 26th of January, on the South-weſt Part of Block-Iſland.

The Friendſhip, Capt. Ball, from London and St. Auguſtine, has brought only one half-Cheſt of Tea.

The Heart-of-Oak, Capt. Gunn, now lying Wind-bound for London, has no leſs than 323 Caſks and 35 Boxes, containing 123,349 Pounds of Indico on board, altho' ſo late in the Seaſon.

This Morning died Mr. Forteſcue, one of the Lieutenants of His Majeſty's Ship Glaſgow.

Price of Rice, the ſame as in our laſt.—Quantity cleared, 48,234 Tierces.

Extracts from the Votes of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of GEORGIA.

FEBRUARY 28, 1774.

Reſolved, That it is the opinion of your Committee, that the thanks of the Commons Houſe be given to the ſaid Benjamin Franklin, Eſq; for the juſt diſcharge of the important truſt repoſed in him, and that Mr. Speaker be requeſted to acquaint him therewith, and aſſure him, that the Houſe retains a grateful ſenſe of his repeated offers and endeavours to ſerve the province.

Reſolved, That Benjamin Franklin, Eſq; be Agent for one whole year, commencing from this 2d day of March, 1774, to repreſent, ſolicit, and tranſact the affairs of this province in Great-Britain, and he is hereby fully authorized and empowered to follow and purſue all ſuch inſtructions as he ſhall from time to time receive from the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly, or the Committee appointed to correſpond with him.

Reſolved, That the Hon. William Young, Eſq; Noble Wimberly Jones, Joſeph Clay, Samuel Farley, Thomas Shruder, John Simpſon, Thomas Netherclift, Thomas Young, and David Zubly, Eſqrs. ſhall be, and they are hereby appointed a Committee to correſpond with the ſaid Benjamin Franklin, and give him ſuch orders and inſtructions from time to time as they ſhall judge to be for the ſervice of this province; and the ſaid Agent is directed, in all his correſpondence, to addreſs his letters to the firſt named in the above Committee and the other Members thereof, who ſhall, as ſoon as may be, ſummon the Members of the ſaid Committee to meet and take under Conſideration the matters contained in ſuch letters, and, in caſe of the abſence from Savannah of the perſon firſt in nomination, then any other Member of the Committee who ſhall be preſent, and proceed to buſineſs, but no letter to be opened, or the ſeal broke, upon any pretence whatſoever, before five of the ſaid Committee are preſent.

Reſolved, That the ſaid Benjamin Franklin, be allowed and paid for his Agency the ſum of 150l. ſterling money of Great-Britain for the term aforeſaid, over and above his charges and diſburſements on his application to his Majeſty, or the ſeveral Officers and Boards, in negociating the affairs of this province in Great-Britain.
